1. NATURE OF THE RELATIONSHIP

In order to promote cooperation and the advancement of academic and educational exchanges between the School of Chemistry, The University of Melbourne and the Department of Chemistry, Faculty of Science University of Brawijaya, the Parties wish to explore the possibility of establishing a cooperative relationship. The Parties envisage that such a relationship might include:

- Academic visits incorporating short term visits of Scholars;
- Joint research and development activities, including assistance with the relevant Centers within each university;
- Participation and co-sponsoring of international conferences, seminars, workshops, and academic meetings; and
- Upgrading of qualifications of staff by undertaking doctoral degrees with relevant academic staff from each institution.

2. SPECIFIC ACTIVITIES

The purpose of this Memorandum of Understanding is only to express the Intentions of Parties. With the exception of clause 4, this Memorandum of Understanding is not intended to be legally binding on either Party. This Memorandum of Understanding is not intended to set out contractual terms governing the conduct of any specific activity contemplated under this Memorandum of Understanding. The terms of cooperation for specific activity contemplated under this Memorandum of Understanding shall be mutually discussed and agreed upon in writing by both Parties prior to the initiation of that activity. Any such activities agreed upon will be recorded and governed by a separate legally binding agreement executed by both Parties. Each Party shall designate a liaison officer to develop and coordinate the specific activities agreed upon. This Memorandum of Understanding imposes no financial obligation on either Party. Both Parties understand that all financial arrangements will have to be negotiated and will depend on the availability of funds.

3. DURATION

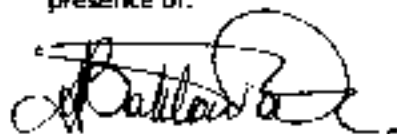

This Memorandum of Understanding will remain current for five years (from the date on which the last Party signs the Memorandum of Understanding) with the understanding that either Party may terminate it by giving the other Party one month's written notice, unless an earlier termination is mutually agreed upon. A project agreement made pursuant to clause 2 may survive the termination or expiration of this Memorandum of Understanding. Each Party recognizes that the other Party has, may have or will have arrangements of a similar or different nature with other institutions whether in each Party's respective countries or elsewhere in the world, during the currency of this Memorandum of Understanding. Nothing in this Memorandum of Understanding is intended to limit each Party's ability to conduct the activities outlined in clause 1 independently, whether or not with third parties.

4. CONFIDENTIALITY

Each Party shall keep confidential any information that it receives from the other Party which is marked confidential or which a Party notifies the other Party is confidential. The obligation to protect confidential information survives termination or expiration of this Memorandum of Understanding, and continues to apply until the earlier of (a) the information ceasing to be confidential (other than through disclosure by the recipient Party); and (b) five years after termination or expiration of this Memorandum of Understanding.

This Memorandum of Understanding will become effective upon signing by representatives of both institutions. This Memorandum of Understanding may be executed in counterparts.
